

APPLICATION FOR A LICENCE TO PRACTICE VETERINARY MEDICINE IN ICELAND

The collection of fees for inspections and other service projects of the Icelandic Food and Veterinary Authority, e.g. issuance of permits, certificates, registration, etc. goes according to the authority's tariff. The invoices are electronic and published on Ísland.is and in the online bank of the recipient.

Name (full name as it appears on passport)	Tel. no.	E-mail address
Address	Postal code	City
Country	Place of work

Name and place of Veterinary school	Date of graduation
Place of work in Iceland

The following documents must be included with the application:

- A copy of graduation documents for the veterinary degree
- Academic records or other documentation that shows clearly what education was acquired.
- A letter of good standing, or a similar certificate of current professional status. The document cannot be older than 6 months and must be sent to mast@mast.is directly from the competent authority.
- A copy of your passport

If your veterinary degree is acquired from a university outside of the EU or EEA (European economic area) the following documents must be included additionally:

- Results of evaluation from the Icelandic ENIC/NARIC office

This application should be sent by email to mast@mast.is along with the required documents.